

Taft-Ike Agreement Sign of 'Greatness,' Basil Brewer Says

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 12 (AP)—Basil Brewer, Massachusetts campaign manager for Senator Taft, said tonight the agreement between Gen Eisenhower and Taft "again demonstrated the greatness of their stature."

"Taft and Eisenhower supporters," Brewer said, "may now join forces with enthusiasm and assurance of victory."

Brewer, publisher of the New Bedford Standard-Times, issued this statement:

"The Republican party and patriotic Americans generally may rejoice at the meeting of the minds and the close joining of forces accomplished today by Gen Eisenhower and Senator Taft. Both have again demonstrated the greatness of their stature by their complete willingness to bury personal differences in the country's interest.

"It is unimportant which yielded to the other. Certainly, we know no principles were sacrificed by either when the 'substantial agreement' which Senator Taft described became a fact."
